NEWS RELEASE

For Media Release: August 5, 2003

The Judicial Council does not have a budget to advertise and, therefore, would appreciate the news media disseminating information regarding pending vacancies.

CAMPAIGN SPENDING COMMISSION APPLICATION PROCESS REOPENED

The Judicial Council today reopened the recruitment process for interested and qualified individuals to apply for nomination to the panel from which the governor selects members of the Campaign Spending Commission. The Judicial Council previously announced the governor would be selecting two members to fill current vacancies; however, in light of recent developments, the governor will now be selecting three members due to the resignation of commissioner Della Au Bellati, which becomes effective on August 18, 2003.

Individuals selected will be appointed to a four-year term and may be reappointed one time. The primary duty of the Commission is to supervise campaign contributions and expenditures. Commissioners may not participate in political campaigns or contribute to candidates or political committees.

Interested persons should submit an application, along with a resume and three letters of recommendation (attesting to the applicant's character and integrity) no later than the close of business on Monday, August 25, 2003 to the: Judicial Council, Hawai'i Supreme Court, 417 South King Street, Second Floor, Honolulu, Hawai'i 96813-2902.

Application forms are available on the Judiciary website at www.courts.state.hi.us or at the Public Affairs Office, Room 206-C, Ali'iolani Hale, 417 South King Street, Honolulu, Hawai'i 96813. Requests for applications forms may also be made by calling 539-4702.
